"More than a Bionic Woman": An Evening With Lindsay Wagner

For one night only on Saturday, January 27th, 2018, Emmy award-winning actress Lindsay Wagner comes to Indianapolis for a fun and unique trip down memory lane. "More than a Bionic Woman": An Evening with Lindsay Wagner promises to be a night of heart-warming and hilarious anecdotes from a career spanning over four decades by one of the world's most popular actresses.

Lindsay first came to prominence in the critically acclaimed role of Susan Fields in Oscar-winning movie The Paper Chase, but she received worldwide recognition when she broke the mold for women on television with her iconic portrayal of Jaime Sommers. As she collaborated with the writers, "The Bionic Woman" became an inspiration around the world and in 1977 Lindsay won the Emmy for "Best Actress in a Dramatic Role". This was followed by over 40 TV movies, 5 mini-series and several feature films and specials.

Whether you have loved her since The Bionic Woman, were moved by one of her TV movies or just caught her recently on the number one drama show NCIS, it is very unlikely that this icon of television hasn't captured your heart at some point during her wonderful career.

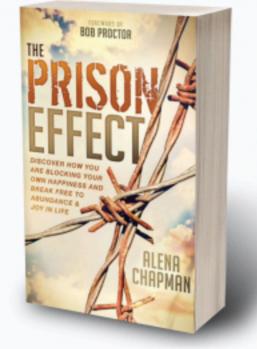

Don't miss this entertaining and candid multi-media self-portrait, during which Lindsay will be interviewed by her friend Karen Stowe to provide a rare and unique insight into the life of an internationally-renowned Hollywood actress, including questions from the audience. A truly memorable experience for everyone.
